SANTA BARBARA TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION

2018 ANNUAL REPORT

I am challenged to sum up the fifty-sixth year of the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation (SBTHP) because it was such an incredible one! My presidency has been overwhelmingly positive and rewarding. My Board and especially my Executive Committee have been supportive and dedicated. The staff never disappoints, pulling their weight and then some. Our volunteers continue to serve our mission with enthusiasm. The Strategic Plan was completed, presented to our stakeholders, and implementation is under way.

In April, I emceed the Founding Day Ceremony. As a Presidio descendant, this is especially meaningful to me and I always enjoy it. This year our Executive Director, Dr. Anne Petersen, made it very unique and one to remember as she was selected to serve as Saint Barbara. In August, my husband and I along with Board Secretary Kevin Snow and his wife Sheila shared a carriage in “El Desfile Historico.” The 1918 Projection Project in November was thrilling and sobering at the same time.
I have only touched on a few memories. I am confident that the fifty-seventh year will be equally great and just as memorable. Don’t be left out, stay involved and make some memories of your own.

Siempre adelante,

From the Executive Director

Natural disasters in early 2018 colored the opening of the year with a degree of despair for our community, but we wrapped up the year feeling resilient, and with an even stronger sense of community spirit. The Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation’s new strategic plan, completed in the Fall of 2018, reinforces our organization’s role as a strong community partner.

We are poised to offer more value to our stakeholders with a new mission statement which focuses on our stewardship of the Presidio Neighborhood and county-wide advocacy for preservation. Our new organizational values celebrate working collaboratively and with equity in mind, and centralize a historical approach to our work with a forward-looking, action-oriented focus.

The foundations of our strategic plan appear throughout the enclosed reports which were crafted by our talented staff. We have been piloting new ideas, taking calculated risks and strengthening relationships throughout the year as our plan has taken shape. From the collaborative projection project honoring the armistice of World War 1, 1918, to hosting holiday markets that support local businesses, and reassessing some key internal procedures with an eye towards increased efficiency, we have been busy. In 2019, we will begin to implement our three-year plan. We look forward to keeping you apprised of this exciting work in the years ahead!

Executive Director
THE SANTA BARBARA TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION STEWARDS THE PAST AND PRESENT OF THE PRESIDIO NEIGHBORHOOD AND INSPIRES PRESERVATION ADVOCACY THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY IN ORDER TO CREATE A MORE VIBRANT COMMUNITY.
Several major infrastructure improvements were completed in 2018 including re-piping the Phelan cottage at 828 Santa Barbara Street, a water main repair for the main museum complex, resurfacing the Canon Perdido Street parking lot, and installation of new security systems at the Casa de la Guerra and Alhecama Theatre. Furnishing of the theatre continued with the installation of a stage curtain and motorized rear-projection screen and the purchase of new banquet tables. In September the Alhecama was designated the City of Santa Barbara’s newest Landmark and in December it was awarded the AIA’s Design Award for Historic Preservation.

The Restoration Committee completed a condition survey of buildings owned and/or managed by SBTHP. The new database that will help staff manage, schedule, and budget for regular maintenance as well as capital projects for each building in the future. The annual Archaeology Summer Camp students continued excavation of the second defense wall and made several exciting discoveries.
The Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation thanks its members, donors, foundations, and corporate partners who continue to make our work possible. In 2018, the Development Department strategically moved most of our advertising and marketing to online platforms which increased attendance at our public programs and helped us reach new audiences. During Old Spanish Days, SBTHP hosted Casa Cantina. The lively atmosphere attracted thousands of guests over four days and nights, from August 1st through August 4th, 2018. The event brought a record number of sales and sponsorships, with a total gross income over $130,000. SBTHP’s facility rentals booked ninety-one events, including sixteen wedding ceremonies and fifteen receptions.

SBTHP received generous support from numerous local foundations, including the George Griffiths and Olive J. Griffiths Charitable Foundation, John and Beverly Stauffer Foundation, The Towbes Foundation, Montecito Bank & Trust, California State Parks Foundation, Mosher Foundation, and Outhwaite Foundation.

With the unveiling of SBTHP’s new strategic plan in 2018, the Programs Department has been continuing to make strides towards fulfilling our new mission statement and values. We have been more inclusive in representing both the past and present communities within the Presidio Neighborhood and, as a result, have become a more vibrant community hub.

In 2018, our programs experienced significant growth in the number of beneficiaries reached. Early California Days, our flagship living history program for elementary school students, increased its reach from 600 students to over 850. Our Dia de los Muertos Craft Day saw over 500 attendees and our Una Noche de Las Posadas celebration welcomed over 150 participants. The turnout for our Asian American Neighborhood Festival also exceeded all expectations.

After experiencing such success from our diverse set of programs this past year, we are confident that 2019 will be just as prosperous.

Public Engagement

Kevin McGarry

The Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation made significant progress toward building and strengthening our coveted community partnerships in 2018. First-time collaborations yielded new, innovative programs including a Santa Barbara School of the Arts event in May, and a WWI-themed projection-art installation honoring local veterans titled 1918 in November. Our new Collections and Exhibits website went live, offering the public a virtual glimpse into the Presidio Research Center’s archaeological, research and curatorial collections. Working more closely with Santa Barbara Historical Museum staff established a co-sponsored dual tour field trip experience, enabling classes to learn at both sites with one visit. In September, we welcomed over one hundred presidio family members at our annual Presidio Descendants Luncheon and in December, we co-hosted two winter holiday markets, supporting local artists and small businesses. In 2018, we not only carried our valued traditions forward, we created new ones.
Visitor Services

Eileen Daley and Laine Martens

Visitor Services at El Presidio de Santa Bárbara State Historic Park and Casa de la Guerra experienced an increase in traffic in 2018. With a combined visitor count of 28,000, our year was very busy, but we still found time for innovation. Presidio Gift Shop manager Laine Martens introduced new custom-made gift shop products, including an Alhecama Theatre-themed puzzle and leather goods marked with the Santa Barbara Presidio’s historic A5 livestock brand. Casa de la Guerra supervisor Sharlene Rubio increased our gift shop sales there, and Weekend Supervisor David Martinez and our weekend interpreters continued to provide great service to our weekend visitors. In the summer months, we engaged everyday visitors with weekly docent-led hands-on learning stations and scheduled tours. We would like to thank all those who helped make 2018 a successful year, and we look forward to continuing the momentum in 2019.
SBTHP and Channel Coast District staff and consultants Suzanne Elledge Permitting & Planning Services produced a final draft of the Santa Inés Mission Mills Interim Use Guidelines (IUG). The document was presented to the State Parks Policy and Program Committee (PPPC) in October. SBTHP staff coordinated a guided tour of the Mills property for the Santa Barbara County Trails Council and the Healthy People Healthy Trails initiative. The program and hike were sponsored by Santa Barbara County Supervisor Joan Hartmann.

Through a generous grant from the California Missions Foundation, SBTHP was able to install a new protective pipe fence and gate at the entrance of Lot 72. SBTHP staff organized the annual Volunteer Olive Picking event on December 15, 2018. Despite a bad olive harvest state-wide, we harvested approximately 1.25 tons of olives. 2019 should be another great year for SBTHP’s olive enterprise and hopefully sees the official opening of California’s newest State Historic Park!
This year witnessed a changing of the guard in the Presidio Research Center. Longtime Librarian and Archivist Laurie Hannah retired. She has been succeeded by Chris Ervin, a Certified Archivist. Significant progress has been made in arranging and describing the institutional records of the Trust— our organization’s history going back 55 years. Ed Vernon’s mostly digital materials generated while researching his publications on Baja missions and maritime history have been processed— nearly 30GB of data. Thanks to a donation from a board member, we set up a forensics computer to assist with the safe ingest of those digital materials. Volunteer Ambi Harsha organized the new Presidio Postcards Collection and ensured we have a complete set of La Campana back to 1970. As a class project, UCSB students cataloged over 700 images from our photo collection. Overall, the Presidio Research Center responded to 107 reference requests from the community with 46 in-person visits to the Reading Room.
As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation is grateful for your enduring support of our mission. Your partnership ensures that the historic places, educational programs, and cultural events that are dear to you continue to thrive and knit together the community of this generation and the next.

Individuals and organizations named below made gifts valued at $100 or more during 2018. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of our donor listing. If you find any errors, please contact our Development Office at (805) 961-5378. To all our contributors, we offer our deep appreciation for your support.

The Santa Inés Mission Mills Olive Oil comes from trees planted at the Santa Inés Mission Mills State Property. It is locally cold-pressed from a blend of Manzanillo, Mission, Arbequina, Lucca, and Grappolo varieties of olives. The historic Santa Inés Mission Mills complex includes water-powered fulling and grist mills, exceptional examples of Spanish efforts to industrialize the mission agriculture and economy. Part of the Mission Santa Inés National Historic Landmark District that includes the Santa Inés Mission and 95 acres of surrounding land, the mills complex is under the stewardship of the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation. SBTHP works in partnership with California State Parks, the Santa Inés Mission, and the City of Solvang to ensure that the natural and cultural resources that make this a special place are protected and preserved for future generations.
